

(Reference)

For the understanding of “Human-Rights Movement in the Community”

1) Problem of the movement for right protection, restoration, and creation

1. Fundamental Liberties

- (1.) Right of self-determination to consider a thing freely and act without the restrictions and compulsions from the national power, etc.
- (2.) Freedom to continue living in the dear old place and freedom of move
- (3.) Freedom of economic activities such as the formation and the securing of property
- (4.) Freedom of ideas, principles and expressions
- (5.) Freedom of the marriage based on the agreement of the person concerned

2. Right to live happily

- (1) Right of self-realization to live a human life by making an effort for one’s purpose and the realization of one’s ideal, and accomplishing it
- (2) Right to secure the wages and the way of working to live a human life, and Right for a working opportunity to be guaranteed and to keep working in the community
- (3) Right of third generation including rights of personality and privacy
- (4) Right to live a life in the environment which people can live in peace, safe and secure, and feel the happiness humanly
- (5) Right to take the services such as medical treatment, nursing care, culture, and sports
- (6) Right to take the protection and support of the society and a nation for an individual and a family by being independent
- (7) Right to learn by the education and culture to be secured the equal opportunity of the education in real
- (8) Right to know such as document information of administration etc. by the information disclosure, and access it
- (9) Right to demand for the maintenance and securing of public service of the residents
- (10) Right to produce, distribute, and secure the foods including principal food
- (11) Right to ask for circulation and activation of the local economy
- (12) Right to secure the freedom of move by maintenance of public traffic etc.
- (13) Right to be equally respected and recognized as individuals for all the residents in the community
- (14) Right to seek a review of the social system, custom, and traditional practice to” the realization of gender equality” which is “gender formed socially and culturally”

3. Right of Resident Self-government

- (1) Right to develop the self-government and community to promote the contact and mutual help
- (2) Right to protect the safety of resident life from disasters, crimes, and poverty

- (3) Right to inherit the good landscape and the local traditional culture cherished by nature, history, and culture
- (4) Right to make participation in community improvement and the cooperation of the living to the balanced area of the generation